

James E. White

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a. m. at the St. Francis de Sales Church for James E. White Jr., 23, a native of Washington and an employee of the Central Intelligence Agency who died in a Fairfax County auto crash Tuesday.

A graduate of Dunbar High School in 1957, Mr. White was a student at Howard University. In addition to working for the CIA, Mr. White had also worked for the Post Office Department since his graduation from high school.

He is survived by his wife, Malitha; a daughter, Janice Yvette, both of 409 Ridge rd. se., and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. White of 2002 Franklin st. ne.